Definitions (See Also IC 15-19-7)

- Commercial Feed - means all materials or combination of materials, including feed ingredients that are distributed or intended for distribution for use as animal feed or for mixing in animal feed.
- Manufacture - means to prepare, grind, mix, package, repackage, or relabel commercial feed for distribution.
- Distribute - means either of the following:
 - (i) To offer for sale, hold for sale, sell, exchange, or barter commercial feed.
 - (ii) To supply, furnish, or otherwise provide commercial feed to a contract feeder or integrated operator.
- Pet Food - means a commercial feed prepared and distributed for consumption by dogs or cats.
- Pet Treat - means a commercial feed provided to a pet as a reward or snack and not intended as complete feed.
- Specialty Pet - means any non-canine or non-feline domesticated animal kept as a pet and normally confined to and maintained in a cage or tank within the owner's domicile, including, but not limited to, gerbils, hamsters, canaries, psittacine birds, mynahs, finches, tropical fish, goldfish, snakes, and turtles.
- Submitter Agent - someone who is appointed by the licensee to receive any documents, notices, or demands served upon the licensee.
- Bulk Feed - commercial feed sold at a unit price (e.g., per pound, per piece) unpackaged where the customer is able to select amount at the time of sale. Most commonly selected when for sale at farmer's markets.*

Important Information

- All product labels MUST be submitted to the Office of Indiana State Chemist. The labels may be mailed or e-mailed to feedlicense@purdue.edu. Include all new/revised labels with your application.
- License name and address must match product labeling.
- Any incomplete applications will be returned and no license will be issued.
- Each location that manufactures commercial feed in Indiana is required to have a license.
- An Inspection and Tonnage Fee Report for commercial feed manufactured and distributed into or within Indiana must be filed quarterly.
- For inspection and tonnage fee report forms or for additional feed licensing and program information, please visit: oisc.purdue.edu/feed
- Late fees are due when a previously licensed firm fails to renew by December 31 or when a firm fails to obtain a license prior to distributing product within Indiana
